Mary A. Dix
 Administrative Officer
 National Security Council
 Room 397, Old Executive Office Building

Ms. Dix:

My survey of the Office's providing the five supporting staff employees detailed to National Security Council (NSC) is now complete and, as expected, the response is mixed. In two cases, [redacted] the offices replied that reimburseable bills had been sent to the Assistant Director for Liaison and should be processed. The Office of record for [redacted] considers this a reimburseable detail and will ensure that the proper paper work follows. The Office of Science and Technology which has detailed to you [redacted] will consider these non-reimburseable details. No billing should be expected for these two individuals.

Therefore, you may use this memo to deobligate that portion of the FY87 Interagency Agreement represented by [redacted]. As we discussed earlier, nothing in my survey would prevent your Office from requesting formally that the entire agreement be made non-reimburseable. Meanwhile, the billings on [redacted] are returned for further action.

On a related topic, the Office of Information Technology (OIT) has advised that [redacted] was entered-on-duty to their complement and immediately detailed to the NSC. They consider this a non-reimburseable detail for as long as the NSC requires his services. Since there will be no billing and no expiration or renewal date they propose to simplify matters by not submitting any formal documentation. It may be necessary for a line of communication to be established with OIT for [redacted] to report time and attendance information, premium hours worked, leave taken, etc.

Sorry, I couldn't be of further help.
